

North American Industry Classification System (NAICS)

All American subsidiaries in Germany in this directory have NAICS codes to identify their products and activities.

NAICS stands for "North American Industry Classification System", which replaced the SIC system in 2001 and is now in official use by the U.S. government as well as principal chambers of commerce and trade associations in the USA. The NAICS comprises nine major digit divisions that are divided into major groups indicated by a three-digit code. Further subdivisions are made on a four- to six-digit basis. This section is limited to those groups in which the company in this directory are engaged.
