Welcome to the Breidenbacher Hof, a Capella Hotel

Right in the heart of Düsseldorf and with a history of over 200 years, the Breidenbacher Hof, a Capella Hotel offers its guests the best location on Königsallee combined with ultra-luxury service and amenities. Re-opened in 2008 and under the umbrella of the luxury brand Capella Hotels and Resorts, the 85 spacious guest rooms and 21 elegant suites with classy interiors and valued inclusive amenities promise the most luxurious stay. Reflecting Capella's philosophy to grant guests the highest service level possible and to always place them in the center of attention, many services and amenities are included: wireless internet, minibar with soft drinks in all rooms and suites, flexible check-in and check-out times and the Capella Living Room where guests can enjoy soft drinks, tea and coffee specialties as well as take advantage of the service of the Personal Assistants. Also part of the philosophy is to focus on the guests' wishes including the needs of different nationalities. Additionally, the private spa area with indoor pool, steam bath, sauna facilities and fitness center is accessible for hotels guests only.

The boutique hotel on Düsseldorf's most famous shopping boulevard was rebuilt based on a luxury living concept. Under one roof you will find the Capella Hotel Breidenbacher Hof as well as luxury shops, office space, a beauty lounge, a newly built spa and two clinics with focus on preventive care and surgery. Here, the unique advantage for Breidenbacher Hof guests is the direct walkway connecting the hotel to the clinics. This way, patients can enjoy the exclusive Capella service in a luxury suite or room and have a private passage to the treatment facilities – privacy and security are two of the hotel's most important priorities.

▶ ABOUT THE COMPANY

Whether traveling to Düsseldorf, Germany for business or leisure, the Breidenbacher Hof, a Capella Hotel offers outstanding amenities that set it apart from other luxury hotels. For two hundred years since the grand opening in 1812, the Breidenbacher Hof hotel situated on the Königsallee in Düsseldorf has been the ultimate address in luxury and hospitality. Also after a construction phase of several years at the beginning of the 21st century, the hotel sets the ultimate standard operating under the management of the Capella Hotel Group since its reopening in 2008.
