

Christopher F. PORTER, President, AmCham Germany

Managing Director and Regional Executive at BNY
(The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation)

At the Annual Membership Meeting of AmCham Germany on May 19, 2026, Christopher F. Porter was elected as President of the American Chamber of Commerce in Germany e.V. (AmCham Germany).

Christopher F. Porter leads BNY's client and country management practice across Germany, Switzerland, Central and Southeastern Europe, and Israel, partnering with some of the region's largest and most complex clients. He brings 28 years of financial industry experience spanning all major industry segments, focusing on connecting global capabilities with strategic client solutions. He holds several senior governance roles, including Chair of BNY Frankfurt Branch Management and Member of the Board of Directors of BNY Tel Aviv, the firm's Israeli technology development subsidiary. Christopher began his career in 1998 at The Bank of New York's Wall Street head office and relocated to Frankfurt in 2000. He is engaged in the international banking and business community, serving on the Board of the Association of International Banks in Germany and on the International Banks Committee of the German Banking Association. Christopher holds a Master of Arts in German & European Studies from the Georgetown University Graduate School of Foreign Service, along with bachelor's degrees in International Business Administration and German from Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania.
